04 — NEWSBRIEF

Quick hits

1 Loneliness is now considered a bigger health risk than smoking 15 cigarettes a day, according to NHS England.
Social prescribing — GPs referring patients to community activities — is rolling out nationwide. Walking groups, book clubs and choirs are reportedly oversubscribed.

2 The number of people learning to play an instrument as an adult is rising fast.
Piano and guitar lead the way, with online lessons making it easier. The hardest part, learners say, is finding somewhere to practise without an audience.

3 A study suggests we underestimate how much our neighbours would like to be asked for help.
Researchers say a small favour often builds friendships faster than years of polite nodding over the fence.

4 A survey finds most of us have a drawer, shelf or cupboard we're slightly afraid to open.
The 'everything drawer' is a near-universal feature of British homes. Inside: takeaway menus, dead batteries and one very important thing we'll never find again.

5 Brits now spend an average of 14 hours a week on streaming — more than cooking, cleaning and exercising combined.
The biggest jump is in the over-55s, who used to be the holdouts for live telly. 'Second-screening' means we pay less attention than ever.

6 Britain's most-stolen supermarket item in 2026 isn't meat or cheese — it's olive oil, with theft up 220% year on year.
Prices have nearly doubled in two years. Some shops have fitted security tags to single bottles, others have moved premium brands behind the counter — like cigarettes.

7 Cash is making a small comeback — ATM withdrawals are up 14% on this time last year.
Bank analysts credit budget-conscious households using cash to stay disciplined. The 'envelope method' is back trending on TikTok.

05 — TALKBACK

For the phone lines

OUR SURVEY SAID

Q Nearly 6 in 10 of us have a 'special' version of THIS we won't let anyone else use.
ANSWER: A FAVOURITE MUG.

Q Asked what instantly makes a hotel feel posh, the top answer wasn't the pool — it was THIS.
ANSWER: A LITTLE TRAY OF FREE BISCUITS.

TALK TOPIC

- Scientists reckon the best cure for a bad mood is a ten-minute walk.
  What's your go-to reset when the day's gone wrong — a walk, a brew, a particular song?

TRUE STORY OR JACKANORY — LISTENERS GUESS

FACT UK News. A Yorkshire farmer has won a planning row by getting his prize-winning sheep listed as 'agricultural heritage', preventing a housing development from going ahead next to his field.

FICTION Made up, but believable. A Cornish café has started charging customers extra if they ask for the WiFi password before placing their order, claiming it 'improves table turnover by 40%'.
