OUR SURVEY SAID

Q Our survey said that over 70% of us admit to having a particular 'odd habit' they absolutely have to do before settling down to enjoy a lovely, new book, especially if it's a highly anticipated one. What is it?

ANSWER: ANSWER: 'SNIFFING THE PAGES' OF THE NEW BOOK TO GET THAT LOVELY, FRESH PAPER SMELL!

Q Our survey said that over 65% of us admit to secretly 'doing' what when trying to quickly judge if a new brand of crisps will be good, even if we know it's not strictly scientific? What is it?

ANSWER: ANSWER: 'GIVING THE PACKET A LITTLE SHAKE' TO GAUGE THE CRISP-TO-AIR RATIO!

TALK TOPIC

- You know how sometimes a 'particular type of shop' just instantly makes you feel cheerful, perhaps because of its unique atmosphere or the nostalgic items it sells?
Whether it's an old-fashioned sweet shop, a bustling independent bookshop, or a quirky antique store, which type of shop always lifts your spirits and why?
- We all have that 'one small, everyday household item' that, despite its simplicity, you genuinely couldn't imagine your life without because it's just so useful or brings you a little bit of joy, don't we?
Is it your trusty bottle opener, a favourite mug, or perhaps that oddly specific kitchen gadget? What's your indispensable item and why?

TRUE STORY OR JACKANORY – LISTENERS GUESS

FACT History. Did you know that the world's first recorded traffic light was installed in London, near the Houses of Parliament, in 1868? It was gas-powered and exploded just a month later, injuring the policeman operating it!

FICTION Made up, but believable. It's said that the earliest known musical instrument was a flute made from a hollowed-out dinosaur bone, discovered in an ancient cave in Scotland, producing surprisingly melodic notes.
