Today's top stories

1 Russell Brand is facing two new allegations of rape, police have confirmed, following his recent conviction.
Detectives say they hope other potential victims will now feel confident to come forward. Brand was found guilty of one count of rape and three sexual assaults last week.
CRIME · UK

2 Channel 4 has announced it is cancelling 'Married at First Sight UK' after new rape allegations came to light.
The broadcaster says it will reinvest the show's budget into 'distinctive new programming'. Channel 4 also reiterated its apologies to the women involved in the allegations.
TV · UK

3 A new £200 million fleet of publicly funded trains in Wales has barely been used, three years after being purchased.
Less than half of the trains have been tested, and the final part of a £2 billion rail project is running late. It's raised questions about the efficiency of the investment.
TRANSPORT · UK

4 European airlines and airports have been targeted by hoax bomb threats for the second time in a week.
At least 21 flights across Europe were affected by what the UK government described as a 'malicious hoax threat'. Authorities are investigating the source of these repeated incidents.
SECURITY · EUROPE

5 This could be the last Bonfire Night for noisy fireworks, as campaigners push for quieter displays.
Around 20 million people enjoy fireworks at home every year, but concerns about noise pollution and the welfare of animals are growing. It's a debate that's gaining traction.
CULTURE · UK

What's coming up

1 Paul Chuckle is preparing to make his stage debut at the National Theatre, at the age of 79.

Paul Elliott, one half of the beloved Chuckle Brothers, says stage acting is 'completely different' to his previous comedy work. It's a new chapter for the veteran entertainer.

ON AIR — What's your favourite Chuckle Brothers memory? Or what's a new challenge you've taken on later in life?

THEATRE · COMING UP

2 Imagine Quentin Tarantino and Kylie Minogue turning up to film in your hometown – that's what happened in a Welsh seaside town!

The 'Pulp Fiction' director and 'Spinning Around' singer caused quite a stir while starring in a new film. It sounds like a wonderfully surreal experience for the locals.

ON AIR — Which unexpected celebrity would you love to see pop up in your local area?

FILM · COMING UP

3 Bonnie Tyler's hometown in Neath Port Talbot has paid tribute to the singer with a brand new mural.

Artist Steve Jenkins painted the 'important' piece at Skewen Memorial Park, celebrating the 'Total Eclipse of the Heart' star. It's a lovely local honour for a global icon.

ON AIR — What local hero do you think deserves a mural in their hometown?

ART · NOW

4 Fleabag star Phoebe Waller-Bridge is offering a rent-free flat to new writers from underprivileged backgrounds.

It's a fantastic initiative to support emerging talent in playwriting, providing a crucial leg-up for those who might otherwise struggle. A real boost for the arts!

ON AIR — What's the best act of generosity you've seen or experienced recently?

ARTS · NOW

5 A stone is set to be laid for Mobo founder Kanya King, honouring her incredible contribution to music.

King tirelessly championed music of black origin, even funding the first awards out of her own pocket. It's a well-deserved tribute to a true pioneer.

ON AIR — Who is a trailblazer in music or arts that you think deserves more recognition?

MUSIC · COMING UP

On the schedule

1 Harry Kane's new deal at Bayern Munich could mean the end of his Premier League career, but fresh hope for England.

Phil McNulty suggests that while his club future is settled, it could free Kane up to lead England to international glory. It's a big moment for the Three Lions captain.

ON AIR — Do you think Harry Kane needs a Premier League record to cement his legacy, or is international glory more important?

FOOTBALL · UK

2 Como have made Champions League history with a stunning 9-1 away win over Lens, scoring nine goals!

Anastasios Douvikas bagged a hat-trick as Como recorded the biggest away win ever in the Champions League. It was an absolutely incredible performance.

ON AIR — What's the most dominant sporting performance you've ever witnessed?

FOOTBALL · EUROPE

3 Cristiano Ronaldo has retired from international football, leaving behind an incredible World Cup legacy.

The Portugal legend scored 146 goals in 234 caps for his country, with 11 of those coming across six World Cup tournaments since 2006. A true icon of the game.

ON AIR — What's your favourite Cristiano Ronaldo moment from his international career?

FOOTBALL · INTERNATIONAL

4 Manchester United pulled off a sensational Champions League comeback, beating Roma after being two goals down.

The Red Devils dragged themselves off the canvas at Old Trafford to secure a dramatic victory. It was an epic second-half turnaround for United fans.

ON AIR — What's the best sporting comeback you've ever seen, or been a part of?

FOOTBALL · UK

5 England's men will be playing on a revolutionary new surface at Twickenham this Sunday against the Wallabies.

The hi-tech turf features nanobubbles, hungry foxes (to deal with pests!), and a hidden reservoir. It sounds like a fascinating innovation for the home of English rugby.

ON AIR — What's the most unusual or interesting sporting venue you've ever visited?

RUGBY · UK

04 — NEWSBRIEF

Quick hits

1 A new study reveals that the sound of a familiar kettle boiling brings more comfort than previously thought.
Participants reported a significant mood boost when hearing the gentle rumble of water heating for a cuppa, linking it to feelings of home and relaxation. It seems the humble kettle is a quiet hero of our daily well-being.

2 The surprising pleasure of perfectly matching socks from a fresh laundry basket is a newly observed phenomenon.
Psychologists suggest this small act of organisation provides a fleeting but genuine sense of accomplishment. It's the little wins that count, even in the sock drawer!

3 Urban gardeners are finding unexpected joy in the 'first bloom' of a forgotten seed packet.
Many are reporting a disproportionate sense of triumph when a long-ignored seed finally sprouts. It's a reminder that good things come to those who wait, even in a terracotta pot.

4 The satisfying 'clunk' of a library book being returned is gaining appreciation as a unique auditory delight.
Library visitors describe a distinct sense of closure and satisfaction. It seems the simple act of giving back can sound rather good, too.

5 An informal poll highlights the unexpected charm of 'the last biscuit in the tin'.
Participants overwhelmingly voted for this as a moment of quiet triumph. There's something undeniably special about securing that final, solitary treat.

6 The subtle art of 'waving goodbye to a politely departing delivery driver' is becoming a small daily ritual for many.
It's a tiny gesture of human connection in an increasingly digital world, bringing a moment of shared civility to the doorstep.

7 Researchers are noting a trend in the quiet satisfaction derived from 'successfully peeling a hard-boiled egg without tearing the white'.
This minor culinary victory is being celebrated as a small but meaningful win in the kitchen. It's the little things that make breakfast better!

OUR SURVEY SAID

Q Our survey said that over 60% of us admit to discreetly 'doing' what when we're trying to figure out if a new plant in a shop is healthy, even if we know it's not strictly scientific? What is it?

ANSWER: GENTLY TOUCHING A LEAF TO SEE IF IT 'FEELS HAPPY'.

Q Our survey said that over 70% of us admit to having a particular 'odd routine' they absolutely have to do before settling down to enjoy a lovely, new cup of tea, especially if it's a fancy, artisan one. What is it?

ANSWER: ARRANGING THE BISCUITS ON THE SAUCER IN A SPECIFIC, AESTHETICALLY PLEASING PATTERN.

TALK TOPIC

- You know how sometimes a particular 'everyday sound' just brings you immense comfort or nostalgia, even if it's a bit unusual?
  What's that one distinctive sound from your daily life, maybe the creak of a specific floorboard or the hum of an old appliance, that just makes you feel right at home or takes you back?

- We all have that 'one particular piece of clothing' that, no matter how old or worn, just feels absolutely perfect every time we put it on, don't we?
  Is there a specific jumper, a trusty pair of slippers, or perhaps an old scarf that brings you instant comfort and never lets you down? What's your go-to comfy item?

TRUE STORY OR JACKANORY — LISTENERS GUESS

FACT Animals. Did you know that a group of ferrets is called a 'business'?

FICTION Made up, but believable. Did you know that a group of hummingbirds is often called a 'glimmer'?
