01 — NEWS

Today's top stories

1 The 'Mean Girls' musical has been forced to cancel its run in Belfast, after ongoing violence in the city.

An actor from the show said they haven't left their house because they're so scared. The cancellations follow disorder in Belfast after a knife attack earlier this week.

CRIME · UK

2 A 19-year-old police officer has tragically died from injuries sustained in a crash.

Jess Turnbull, who was just starting her career, was described by her chief constable as having 'so much to look forward to'. It's a truly heartbreaking story.

TRAGEDY · UK

3 A child-rape sentence has sparked renewed scrutiny over UK high street mini-marts.

Rapist Bawan Harwe lured underage girls back to his flat with promises of free vapes and cash. The case has highlighted concerns about the types of businesses operating in local communities.

CRIME · UK

4 Three people have been jailed following violence at a protest in Southampton, sparked by the murder of student Henry Nowak.

Disorder broke out close to where the 18-year-old was tragically killed. The sentences aim to send a clear message about public order.

CRIME · UK

5 Retail giant Frasers, owned by Mike Ashley, has made a huge £1.73 billion offer to buy all of Hugo Boss.

Fraser's already owns over a quarter of the German fashion brand. This move signals a significant expansion for the group.

Quick hits

- 1 Many Brits are discovering the simple joy of 'letterboxing' as a charming outdoor activity.
It's a delightful blend of orienteering, creative stamp carving, and treasure hunting, hidden in scenic spots across the UK. Participants follow clues to find small, waterproof boxes containing a logbook and a unique rubber stamp.
- 2 The humble 'garden shed' is undergoing a stylish transformation, becoming much more than just a storage space.
From luxurious home offices and art studios to cosy reading nooks and even garden pubs, sheds are now being reimagined as versatile extensions of our living spaces. It seems we're finding new ways to make the most of every corner of our property.
- 3 A fascinating trend of 'community astronomy nights' is bringing stargazers together across the country.
Local groups are setting up telescopes in parks and open spaces, inviting everyone to learn about constellations and marvel at celestial wonders. It's a wonderful way to connect with neighbours and the vastness of the universe.
- 4 The delightful art of 'pebble painting' is seeing a surge in popularity, adding splashes of colour to our parks and pathways.
People are painting intricate designs, inspiring messages, and whimsical characters onto smooth pebbles, then hiding them for others to find and re-hide. It's a lovely way to spread a little unexpected joy.
- 5 More people are embracing 'upcycled fashion' as a creative and sustainable way to refresh their wardrobes.
Instead of discarding old clothes, individuals are transforming them into new, unique garments and accessories. From dyeing and embroidering to completely restyling, it's all about giving forgotten items a second life.
- 6 The traditional 'village fete' is experiencing a wonderful resurgence, becoming a hub for local community spirit.
These charming events, with their classic stalls, homemade treats, and friendly competitions, are bringing people together to celebrate local talent and foster a strong sense of belonging. It's a lovely reminder of simple pleasures.
- 7 A new appreciation for the simple elegance of 'pressed flower art' is blooming among craft enthusiasts.
Collecting and preserving flowers and foliage to create beautiful botanical arrangements for frames, cards, and decorative items is a calming and rewarding hobby. It's a lovely way to capture and keep nature's beauty.

05 – TALKBACK

For the phone lines

OUR SURVEY SAID

Q Our survey said that over 70% of us admit to having a secret 'good luck' pen that we use for important paperwork or crosswords. What makes your pen so special?

ANSWER: A SPECIFIC 'LUCKY' PEN FOR IMPORTANT MOMENTS.

Q A recent poll asked Brits what small, everyday item they always seem to have an abundance of, even though they can never find the specific one they actually need. What came out on top?

ANSWER: LOOSE BUTTONS, ODD SOCKS, OR SINGLE EARRINGS.

TALK TOPIC

- You know how sometimes you hear a particular phrase or word, and you suddenly realise you've been pronouncing it slightly differently your whole life?

Perhaps it's a place name, a brand, or just a common word. What word or phrase did you only recently realise you'd been saying 'wrong' all this time?

- We all have those little 'rituals' we do, don't we? Things we do every day, almost without thinking, that just make life feel right, or help us get started.

Perhaps it's how you make your morning cuppa, or a specific way you organise your desk. What's your most unique daily ritual or routine that you absolutely can't do without?

TRUE STORY OR JACKANORY – LISTENERS GUESS

FACT Space. Did you know that there's a specific type of diamond found in meteorites, called lonsdaleite, which is even harder than regular diamonds?

FICTION Made up, but believable. The Earth's core is actually entirely hollow, and contains a second, smaller planet within it, warmed by a mini sun.
