04 — NEWSBRIEF

Quick hits

1 Board game cafés are booming on UK high streets.
Owners say the biggest sellers are the quick, daft games — not the four-hour epics. The most common cause of fallouts remains the rules of a certain word game.

2 A survey says most of us have a 'signature dish' we bring out whenever guests come round.
Chilli, lasagne and a roast top the list. Very few of us, it turns out, have a second dish ready if the first goes wrong.

3 Community 'little libraries' — swap-a-book boxes on the street — are popping up in more neighbourhoods.
The unwritten rule is take one, leave one. The most-swapped genre, organisers say, is the holiday thriller.

4 A study suggests humming or singing badly in the car genuinely lifts your mood.
Researchers link it to deep breathing and a small dose of joy. Fellow drivers at the lights may not share the enthusiasm.

5 62% of us have lied about reading a book to look smart in front of someone we fancy.
Most-faked titles: 1984, Pride and Prejudice and (awkwardly) the Bible. One in five admit to faking a whole dinner-party conversation about a novel they'd only seen the cover of.

6 More than half of UK workers would take a 10% pay cut to never go into the office again — but only 17% of bosses say they'd offer one.
The gap is growing again after forced return-to-office rules. HR experts say the tension shows up in resignation rates, particularly for under-35s.

7 Half of UK adults can't name a single member of the cabinet — but 80% can name three Love Island contestants.
Political engagement researchers say it's not apathy so much as 'noise overload'. People remember faces from things they actively watch.

05 — TALKBACK

For the phone lines

OUR SURVEY SAID

Q Over 70% of us admit we've rewatched THIS rather than try something new.
ANSWER: THE SAME COMFORT SHOW FOR THE HUNDREDTH TIME.

Q The most common reason we open the fridge is apparently NOT hunger — it's THIS.
ANSWER: BOREDOM.

TALK TOPIC

- A study claims our taste in music is 'locked in' by age 14.
  Talk-back: do you still listen to what you loved at 14? And what was on your bedroom wall?

- What's the most embarrassing thing in your kitchen that you'd hide if guests came round?
  Talk-back: bonus marks for anyone admitting to a Slap Chop or a NutriBullet bought once and never used.

TRUE STORY OR JACKANORY — LISTENERS GUESS

FACT Records. The longest place name in the UK is a village on Anglesey with 58 letters — usually shortened, mercifully, to Llanfair PG.

FICTION Made up, but believable. A café in the Cotswolds holds the unofficial record for the longest-ever order, after a coach party requested 41 slightly different versions of a cup of tea.
