Quick hits

- 1 The 'silver gamer' is the fastest-growing demographic in UK gaming — over-65s spent £180 million on games last year.
Cosy life-sim titles like Stardew Valley and Animal Crossing dominate. Console makers are reportedly designing larger UI for the market.
- 2 Britain's most-stolen supermarket item in 2026 isn't meat or cheese — it's olive oil, with theft up 220% year on year.
Prices have nearly doubled in two years. Some shops have fitted security tags to single bottles, others have moved premium brands behind the counter — like cigarettes.
- 3 The average Brit checks their phone 159 times a day — but says it 'doesn't feel like that much'.
Researchers using passive monitoring apps say we badly underestimate our own usage. Most people guess between 30 and 70 times.
- 4 Brits now spend an average of 14 hours a week on streaming — more than cooking, cleaning and exercising combined.
The biggest jump is in the over-55s, who used to be the holdouts for live telly. 'Second-screening' means we pay less attention than ever.
- 5 Holiday firms report a 40% spike in 'shoulder season' bookings — September and October sun trips are way up on last year.
Travellers blame school-holiday flight prices, unreliable summer weather, and 'August feels too crowded these days'. Spain, Greece and Portugal top the wish list.
- 6 Half of UK adults can't name a single member of the cabinet — but 80% can name three Love Island contestants.
Political engagement researchers say it's not apathy so much as 'noise overload'. People remember faces from things they actively watch.
- 7 Brits spend an average of 38 minutes a day deciding what to watch — and 12 of those are spent scrolling Netflix.
'Watch-paralysis' has its own subreddit. Streamers are quietly experimenting with 'shuffle' buttons that just play something.
