Prepflow

DAILY EDITION · FOR TONY DIBBIN

Monday, 12 October 2026.

Your daily radio show prep — three top news stories, forward-looking showbiz, sport that matters this week, talkback prompts, and day notes for today and tomorrow. Built fresh every weekday, ready by 3pm for tomorrow's show.

00 — WEATHER

Tomorrow's forecast

LONDON	BIRMINGHAM	MANCHESTER	GLASGOW
Light drizzle	Light drizzle	Overcast	Light drizzle
18° 14°	17° 13°	17° 11°	15° 9°

01 — NEWS

Today's top stories

1 The Prime Minister has stated it's 'clear' that Russia interfered with the Brexit vote, suggesting voters weren't fully aware of foreign actors trying to disrupt UK democracy.

This follows ongoing discussions about external influences on democratic processes. The PM's comments highlight concerns about the integrity of past referendums and elections. It raises questions about how such interference might have shaped public opinion.

POLITICS · UK

2 Greater Manchester Mayor Andy Burnham is set to release details of his meetings regarding Manchester City, after facing criticism.

This comes in the wake of Manchester City being found guilty of breaching Premier League financial rules. Burnham had made comments following the verdict, drawing public scrutiny. His decision to release meeting details aims to provide transparency.

SPORT · UK

3 A 36-year-old man has been arrested six years after a double murder at a lockdown party where Junior Ajose and Cheriff Tall were shot.

This significant development in the long-running case brings hope for justice for the victims' families. The arrests highlight the persistent efforts of law enforcement to solve cold cases. It shows that even after many years, investigations can still yield results.

CRIME · UK

4 A worker paralysed after a 30-foot fall from a pylon has been awarded a £10 million payout, with safety failings identified.

The Health and Safety Executive found that Gavin Pugh's life-changing injuries could have been prevented. This case underscores the critical importance of workplace safety protocols. It also highlights the devastating consequences when those measures are not followed.

WORKPLACE · UK

5 Police have raided a gang suspected of helping migrants make fake gay asylum claims, following a BBC investigation.

Footage shows the arrests, which come after a report revealed law firms and advisers were allegedly assisting individuals. This operation targets a serious issue of fraudulent asylum applications. It underscores efforts to tackle organised crime exploiting the asylum system.

CRIME · UK

02 — SHOWBIZ

What's coming up

1 Get ready for more glitz and glamour, as the hit film 'Crazy Rich Asians' is set to return as a TV show with its original stars!

The series will pick up right where the hugely popular 2018 movie left off. Fans can look forward to seeing Constance Wu, Henry Golding, Michelle Yeoh, and Ronny Chieng back on screen. It promises more extravagant settings and dramatic storylines.

> ON AIR — Are you excited to see the 'Crazy Rich Asians' cast reunite for a TV series? What do you hope to see happen next?

TV · COMING UP

2 Hollywood actor Luke Evans has spoken about his 'joyous' four months filming in rainy Wales, even getting family members cameos!

Despite the Welsh weather, Evans clearly enjoyed his time working on his latest project. He shared that his family were on set, making it a truly special experience. It's lovely to hear how much he embraced his roots during filming.

> ON AIR — Luke Evans got his family cameos in his new show! Would you try to get your loved ones a role if you were a big star?

FILM · COMING UP

3 Olivia Colman has revealed her surprise at the viral 'Wicker' memes flooding social media ahead of her new film's release.

The esteemed actress is known for her incredible performances, but this level of social media buzz is new for her. The 'steamy jokes' have certainly captured public attention. It seems her latest role is already making a big impression online!

> ON AIR — Olivia Colman is surprised by all the 'Wicker' memes! Have you seen them, and what's your take on a film creating such a buzz before it's even out?

FILM · COMING UP

4 London Fashion Week is trying to show it's 'bigger than London' with a new initiative to broaden its reach.

This year saw an effort to highlight that the event's influence and talent extend beyond the capital. It's an interesting move to decentralise such a well-known global event. The question is, will it truly make a difference to its identity?

> ON AIR — London Fashion Week wants to be 'bigger than London'. Do you think it can truly shake off its capital city image?

FASHION · COMING UP

5 A major deal involving Warner Bros is expected to reshape the entertainment and news industries, potentially affecting streaming prices.

This significant merger or acquisition could lead to big changes in how we consume media. It might mean new content offerings, but also potentially higher costs for consumers. Keep an eye out for how this unfolds in the coming months.

> ON AIR — A big Warner Bros deal could mean higher streaming prices. Are you worried about the cost of your subscriptions going up even more?

TV · COMING UP

03 — SPORT

On the schedule

1 Manchester City cruised past 10-man Liverpool with a comfortable 3-0 victory at Anfield, extending their perfect start to the season.

This was City's first match since being found guilty of breaching Premier League financial rules, making the win even more significant. They now sit three points clear at the top. The result was a strong statement from the champions.

> ON AIR — Manchester City's big win after the financial charges – does it show their resilience, or just that they're a top team regardless?

FOOTBALL · UK

2 Lewis Hamilton has apologised to Ferrari after an incorrect strategy call during the Singapore Grand Prix, putting Kimi Antonelli on the brink of the world title.

Hamilton's team made a crucial error, which could now see Antonelli clinch the Formula 1 championship in the next race in Austin. It was a frustrating day for the British driver and his team. This sets up a thrilling conclusion to the season.

> ON AIR — Lewis Hamilton's apology to Ferrari after a strategy error – is it a sign of pressure, or just part of the high-stakes world of F1?

F1 · UK

3 The Jacksonville Jaguars stunned the Philadelphia Eagles with a last-second field goal in an exhilarating NFL London game at Tottenham Hotspur Stadium.

Cam Little kicked a huge 57-yard field goal in the final second to seal a dramatic 19-17 victory. It was another fantastic advertisement for American football in the UK. The Tottenham Hotspur Stadium crowd witnessed a thrilling finish.

> ON AIR — Another incredible NFL London game with a last-second winner! What's the best sporting event you've ever seen decided in the final moments?

NFL · UK

4 Scotland's Grant Forrest has secured major invites to The Open and the Masters after winning the Spanish Open.

Forrest held off a strong challenge from home favourite Eugenio Chacarra to claim the prestigious title. This victory marks a significant moment in his career. It will be exciting to see him compete on golf's biggest stages next year.

> ON AIR — Grant Forrest winning the Spanish Open and getting into The Open and Masters – what an achievement! Which major sporting event would you most love to compete in?

GOLF · UK

5 Oliver Glasner endured a frustrating return to Crystal Palace as his Nottingham Forest side let slip an early lead to lose to the Eagles.

Glasner was back at Selhurst Park, the ground where he previously managed Palace. Forest started well but couldn't hold on against his former club. It was a disappointing result for Forest as they look to climb the table.

> ON AIR — Oliver Glasner losing to his old club, Crystal Palace, on his return – is it always extra tough playing against your former team?

FOOTBALL · UK

04 — NEWSBRIEF

Quick hits

1 The humble act of 'leaving a kind note for the postman or delivery driver' is gaining popularity as a small gesture of appreciation.
Many are finding that a quick handwritten 'thank you' or a festive drawing can really brighten someone's day, especially during busy periods. It's a lovely way to acknowledge those who keep things moving.

2 There's a quiet revolution happening in our gardens as 'creative vegetable patches' become the new must-have feature.
Gone are the days of hidden rows; now, people are integrating vibrant greens and colourful root vegetables right into their ornamental borders. It's beautiful and delicious!

3 The simple pleasure of 'hearing a really good joke on the radio' is being rediscovered as a delightful, unexpected lift.
In our busy lives, taking a moment to genuinely laugh out loud at something unexpected from your favourite presenter is a little slice of joy. It just hits differently, doesn't it?

4 A new trend sees people embracing the 'charming imperfections of vintage kitchenware'.
Instead of pristine, matching sets, scuffed bakeware and slightly mismatched crockery are being celebrated for their character and the stories they tell. It's all about that warm, lived-in feel.

5 The 'gentle art of carefully turning the pages of a well-loved book' is being championed as a mindful moment.
In an age of screens, the physical interaction with a book, feeling the paper and hearing that soft rustle, is a small ritual that offers a welcome pause. It’s quite meditative, really.

6 A recent study highlights the mood-boosting power of 'spotting a pet wearing a silly little outfit'.
Whether it's a dog in a tiny hat or a cat in a bow tie, these unexpected sartorial choices for our furry friends are proven to bring a smile to many faces. Pure, unadulterated joy!

7 The satisfying ritual of 'hanging laundry out on the line on a breezy day' is being appreciated for its simple charm and lovely scent.
There's something wonderfully old-fashioned and effective about letting nature do the drying. The fresh scent on sheets and towels is simply unbeatable, isn't it?

05 — TALKBACK

For the phone lines

OUR SURVEY SAID

Q Our survey said that over 60% of us admit to having a particular 'odd routine' they absolutely have to do before settling down to watch a new TV series, especially if it's a really anticipated one. What is it?

ANSWER: MAKING SURE ALL SNACKS AND DRINKS ARE PERFECTLY ARRANGED AND WITHIN ARM'S REACH, CREATING A 'VIEWING ZONE' THAT MINIMISES ANY NEED TO MOVE!

Q Our survey said that over 65% of us admit to secretly 'doing' what when trying to quickly judge if a new brand of tea will be good, even if we know it's not strictly scientific?

ANSWER: GIVING THE DRY TEA BAG A GOOD SNIFF, AS IF THE AROMA ALONE CAN PREDICT BREWING PERFECTION.

TALK TOPIC

- You know how sometimes a 'particular smell' – maybe fresh-cut grass, an old book, or a specific cleaning product – just instantly transports you back to a specific memory or a moment from your past?
  We'd love to hear what those powerful scent-memories are for you. What smells whisk you away, and where do they take you?

- We all have that 'one small, everyday item' that, perhaps to others, seems a bit ordinary, but to you, it brings a surprising amount of satisfaction or joy when you use it, don't we?
  Is it a perfectly weighted pen, a particularly ergonomic mug, or maybe a super-efficient kitchen gadget? What's your unsung hero of everyday objects?

TRUE STORY OR JACKANORY — LISTENERS GUESS

FACT History. Did you know that in the 17th century, the official title of the person in charge of ensuring all the clocks at Hampton Court Palace were working correctly was 'Keeper of the King's Clocks and Watches'?

FICTION Made up, but believable. Did you know that during the 19th century in London, there was a brief fashion for wearing miniature hot air balloons as hats, particularly among the aristocracy?

06 — LOTTERY

Jackpots ahead

NEXT EUROMILLIONS JACKPOT

£25 million

Next Tuesday or Friday · estimated

NEXT NATIONAL LOTTERY JACKPOT

£3.8 million

Next Wednesday or Saturday · estimated

07 — FACTS OF THE DAY

Did you know?

- The shortest war in history was between Britain and Zanzibar on August 27, 1896, lasting only 38 minutes.
- A group of flamingos is called a 'flamboyance', which seems rather fitting for such colourful birds.
- Bees can fly faster than a car, with their top speed recorded at about 20 miles per hour.
- The word 'robot' comes from the Czech word 'robota', meaning forced labour or drudgery.
- Chameleons change their skin colour not only for camouflage but also to express their mood and body temperature.
- The 'Great Stink' of London in 1858 was caused by untreated human waste in the River Thames, leading to the creation of London's modern sewer system.
- There are more permutations of a standard deck of 52 playing cards than there are atoms on Earth.
- The tiny country of San Marino is the oldest sovereign state in the world, founded in 301 AD.

08 — TODAY'S DAY NOTES MON 12 OCT 2026

On this day

Day 285 of the year, 80 days left in 2026. Today Christian feast day: Domnina of Anazarbus; Christian feast day: Edith Cavell and Elizabeth Fry (Church of England); Christian feast day: Fiacc; Christian feast day: Our Lady of the Pillar (Fiestas del Pilar). Star sign Libra, birthstone Opal.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAYS

- 1985 — Greig Laidlaw, Scottish rugby player
- 1968 — Adam Rich, American actor (died 2023)
- 1948 — Rick Parfitt, English singer-songwriter and guitarist (died 2016)
- 1986 — Tyler Blackburn, American actor
- 2002 — Iris Apatow, American actress
- 1946 — Daryl Runswick, English bassist and composer
- 1983 — Katie Piper, English philanthropist, broadcaster, and acid violence survivor
- 1963 — Alan McDonald, Irish footballer and manager (died 2012)

THE DAY TODAY

- 1999 — The former Autonomous Soviet Republic of Abkhazia declares its independence from Georgia.
- 2002 — Terrorists detonate bombs in two nightclubs in Kuta, Bali, Indonesia, killing 202 and wounding over 200.
- 2000 — Two Israeli reservists are lynched by a Palestinian mob at the police station of Ramallah.

TODAY IN MUSIC

- 2010 — The Finnish Yle TV2 channel's Ajankohtainen kakkonen current affairs program airs controversial Homoilta episode (literally "gay night"), which leads to the resignation of almost 50,000 Finns from the Evangelical Lutheran Church.
- 2019 — The Hard Rock Hotel in New Orleans, which is under construction, collapses, killing three workers and injuring 30 others.

TODAY IN HISTORY

- 1994 — Iran Aseman Airlines Flight 746 crashes near Natanz, Iran, killing all 66 people on board.
- 1992 — A 5.8 earthquake occurred in Cairo, Egypt. At least 510 died.

- 1996 — New Zealand holds its first general election under the new mixed-member proportional representation system, which led to Jim Bolger's National Party forming a coalition government with Winston Peters's New Zealand First.

Prepflow

09 — TOMORROW'S DAY NOTES TUE 13 OCT 2026

A peek at tomorrow

Day 286 of the year, 79 days left in 2026. Today Azerbaijani Railway Day (Azerbaijan); Christian feast day: Blessed Alexandrina of Balasar; Christian feast day: Chelidonia; Christian feast day: Edward the Confessor (translation). Star sign Libra, birthstone Opal.

TOMORROW'S BIRTHDAYS

- 1977 — Benjamin Clapp, American drummer
- 1947 — Sammy Hagar, American singer-songwriter, guitarist, and producer
- 1967 — Kate Walsh, American actress and producer
- 1964 — Christopher Judge, American actor and producer
- 1942 — Rutanya Alda, Latvian-American actress
- 1980 — Scott Parker, English footballer
- 1980 — David Haye, English boxer
- 1964 — Matt Walsh, American actor and comedian

THE DAY TOMORROW

- 1962 — The Pacific Northwest experiences a cyclone the equal of a Category 3 hurricane, with winds above 150 mph. Forty-six people die.
- 1972 — Aeroflot Flight 217 crashes outside Moscow, killing 174.
- 2013 — A stampede occurs in India during the Hindu festival Navratri, killing 115 and injuring more than 110.

TOMORROW IN MUSIC

- 1943 — World War II: Marshal Pietro Badoglio announces that Italy has officially declared war on Germany.
- 1972 — The flag of Okinawa Prefecture, Japan, was officially adopted.

Prepflow

10 — FORWARD PLANNING · FILM

Coming to cinemas

OCTOBER 2026 · PREVIEW

FRI 16	Untitled Christopher McQuarrie thriller
FRI 23	Frankenstein (del Toro)

11 — FORWARD PLANNING · SPORT

On the sporting calendar

© 2026 The Radio Business