

Monday, 5 October 2026.

Your daily radio show prep — three top news stories, forward-looking showbiz, sport that matters this week, talkback prompts, and day notes for today and tomorrow. Built fresh every weekday, ready by 3pm for tomorrow's show.

00 — WEATHER

Tomorrow's forecast

LONDON Overcast 22° 13°	BIRMINGHAM Overcast 21° 14°	MANCHESTER Drizzle 18° 15°	GLASGOW Drizzle 16° 12°
-------------------------------	-----------------------------------	----------------------------------	-------------------------------

01 — NEWS

Today's top stories

- 1

The Green Party is facing internal divisions after members backed a motion at their conference that states 'Zionism is racism'.

The vote took place at the party's annual conference in Brighton. This controversial motion has caused significant disagreement among senior figures within the party.

POLITICS · UK
- 2

Conservative leader Kemi Badenoch has declared herself a 'classic old school Conservative', drawing comparisons to Margaret Thatcher.

She made the comments as she outlined her guiding political principles. Her aim is to evoke the strong, traditional conservative values associated with the former Prime Minister.

POLITICS · UK
- 3

The daughter of an MP murdered five years ago has voiced concerns that politicians are still at risk.

Katie Amess spoke to the BBC, questioning whether enough has changed to protect those in public office since her father's death. Her comments highlight ongoing worries about political safety.

POLITICS · UK
- 4

The Justice Secretary has pledged that the courts backlog will decrease, despite the decision to scrap plans for jury trials.

Speaking to the BBC, the minister committed to reducing delays in the legal system. This comes after the previous government's proposals were abandoned.

JUSTICE · UK
- 5

Get ready for an autumn chill this week, as temperatures across the UK are set to drop significantly.

After highs of 28 degrees Celsius in late September, cooler air is moving in. Temperatures will fall closer to the seasonal average, so it's time to dig out those warmer clothes.

WEATHER · UK

What's coming up

- 1 Tickets for Glastonbury 2027 have completely sold out in a blistering 42 minutes, leaving thousands disappointed.
Hopeful festival-goers joined huge online queues, but demand once again far outstripped supply. It seems Worthy Farm remains the hottest ticket in town.
ON AIR – Did you manage to get tickets for Glastonbury 2027, or were you one of the many who missed out?
FESTIVAL · FUTURE
- 2 The British Museum is introducing new measures to help manage the huge queues for the Bayeux Tapestry exhibition.
Changes include extended opening hours, an audio guide, and additional seating for visitors. They're clearly expecting big crowds for the historic artwork.
ON AIR – Have you ever queued for a major exhibition, and was it worth the wait?
EXHIBITION · FUTURE
- 3 Craig Charles is marking 50 years of poetry with a heartfelt tribute to Liverpool, the city he says 'shaped him'.
The presenter is celebrating National Poetry Day by honouring his hometown. It's a lovely nod to his roots and the place that influenced his creative journey.
ON AIR – What city or town has had a big impact on your life and why?
POETRY · TODAY
- 4 A new Tate exhibition is shining a light on the hidden daytime dance revolution of the early Bhangra scene in Bradford.
Photographer Tim Smith's work captures the vibrant 'daytimers' movement, bringing these energetic gatherings to a wider audience. It sounds like a fascinating look back at a unique cultural moment.
ON AIR – What's a forgotten or niche cultural scene you remember fondly?
EXHIBITION · FUTURE
- 5 British band The Feeling are celebrating the 20th anniversary of their debut album, which was famously recorded in a Sussex shed.
The group is preparing for upcoming shows in Eastbourne and Margate. It's a great story of humble beginnings leading to big success!
ON AIR – What's your favourite debut album that came out of an unexpected place?
MUSIC · FUTURE

On the schedule

1 Lewis Hamilton was left 'bemused' after a software glitch turned the Bahrain Grand Prix into what he called a 'Lego race'.

Both Hamilton and Max Verstappen experienced a bug that affected multiple cars before the race. It sounds like a chaotic start to the F1 season in Malaysia!

ON AIR – Have you ever experienced a tech glitch that completely ruined something important?

F1 · UK

2 Welsh driver Elfyn Evans has dramatically claimed his first World Rally Championship title after a rival's last-minute crash.

After being a five-time runner-up, Evans finally secured the world champion title. His rival, Oliver Solberg, crashed in the final moments of Rally Italia Sardegna, handing Evans the win.

ON AIR – What's the most dramatic sporting finish you've ever witnessed?

RALLY · UK

3 Sale Sharks held on to beat Saracens despite a red card for Jacques Vermeulen, securing their first win of the Prem campaign.

They overcame the challenge of being a man down to defeat Saracens 21-17. It was a hard-fought victory for Sale to kickstart their season.

ON AIR – What's the biggest sporting comeback you've seen, either with or against your team?

RUGBY · UK

4 Wakefield Trinity have been crowned Super League Grand Final champions for the first time since 1968, completing an 'unbelievable story'.

Just two years after relegation, Wakefield beat Warrington Wolves 23-10 at Old Trafford. It's a remarkable turnaround for the club.

ON AIR – Which sports team has surprised you the most with an unexpected success story?

RUGBY LEAGUE · UK

5 Daryz has achieved a rare back-to-back success, winning the prestigious Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe for the second year running.

This makes Daryz only the ninth horse in history to win Europe's richest Flat race more than once. It's an incredible achievement in the world of racing.

ON AIR – What's your favourite iconic moment from horse racing history?

HORSE RACING · UK

Quick hits

- 1 The unexpected joy of 'wobbly puddings' is gaining scientific attention.
Researchers suggest that the gentle, rhythmic jiggle of a dessert like jelly or blancmange can evoke a subtle sense of childlike wonder and calm. It seems we're finding delight in the simple things, even on our plates.
- 2 A charming new trend sees people 'leaving positive sticky notes' in public places.
Small, anonymous messages of encouragement or cheer are appearing in bus shelters, libraries, and park benches across the country. It's a lovely way to spread a little bit of unexpected happiness.
- 3 The satisfying 'clink of change' in a traditional piggy bank is making a comeback.
With digital payments dominating, many are rediscovering the simple pleasure and tangible reward of saving physical coins. There's something wonderfully old-school about a proper money box.
- 4 Experts are highlighting the surprising comfort found in 'watching a kettle boil'.
The gentle hum and eventual whistle of a boiling kettle are being noted as a small, mindful moment in our busy days. It's a little pause before that lovely cup of tea.
- 5 A study reveals the 'secret language of polite coughs' in British society.
Apparently, we have a nuanced system of gentle 'ahems' and 'hmms' that convey everything from polite disagreement to a desire to interject without interrupting. It's truly a very British thing!
- 6 The delightful movement of 'drawing happy faces on fruit' in supermarkets is spreading.
Someone leaves a cheerful smiley face on an apple or an orange, bringing a moment of unexpected joy to the next shopper. It's a small act of kindness that brightens the everyday.
- 7 New research suggests that 'the quiet joy of seeing a perfectly ironed stack of shirts' can be surprisingly therapeutic.
There's a deep satisfaction in neatness and order, and this small domestic victory is apparently a real mood booster. Who knew tidiness could be so uplifting?

05 – TALKBACK

For the phone lines

OUR SURVEY SAID

Q Our survey said that over 70% of us admit to having a particular 'odd habit' they absolutely have to do before settling down to enjoy a lovely, new pack of biscuits, especially if it's a fancy selection. What is it?

ANSWER: ARRANGING THEM INTO A 'BEST TO WORST' ORDER, EVEN IF YOU EAT THEM RANDOMLY!

Q Our survey said that over 65% of us admit to secretly 'doing' what when trying to quickly judge if a new brand of chocolate will be good, even if we know it's not strictly scientific? What is it?

ANSWER: SMELLING IT VERY DEEPLY, AS IF THE AROMA ALONE WILL TELL YOU EVERYTHING!

TALK TOPIC

- You know how sometimes a 'particular phrase or saying' just instantly brings back happy memories of a family member, like a grandparent, because they used to say it all the time?
What's that special phrase that always makes you smile and remember them fondly? Was it something quirky, or perhaps a wise piece of advice?

- We all have that 'one small, everyday household tool' that, despite its simplicity, you genuinely couldn't imagine your life without because it's just so useful or brings you a little bit of joy, don't we?
Is it a specific type of bottle opener, a favourite pair of kitchen tongs, or perhaps a trusty old can opener? Tell us about your indispensable bit of kit!

TRUE STORY OR JACKANORY – LISTENERS GUESS

FACT Animals. Did you know that a group of owls is called a 'parliament'?

FICTION Made up, but believable. The average house cat can jump up to six times its own height, making them surprisingly good at reaching high shelves.

06 – LOTTERY

Jackpots ahead

NEXT EUROMILLIONS JACKPOT

£25 million

Next Tuesday or Friday · estimated

NEXT NATIONAL LOTTERY JACKPOT

£3.8 million

Next Wednesday or Saturday · estimated

07 – FACTS OF THE DAY

Did you know?

- The British Isles are home to over 2,500 species of spiders, but only about 12 of them could give you a bite that's noticeable.
- The word 'robot' comes from the Czech word 'robota', meaning 'forced labour' or 'drudgery'.
- A pineapple is not a single fruit, but a group of berries that have fused together.
- The world's first underground railway, the Metropolitan Railway, opened in London in 1863.
- Bees can fly faster than a horse can run, with their wings beating around 200 times per second.
- The 'crumpet' has been a popular snack in Britain since the Victorian era, but its origins are much older.
- The shortest river in Britain is the River Roe in Scotland, measuring just 200 metres long.
- The famous 'Big Ben' is actually the nickname for the Great Bell of the clock, not the clock tower itself.

On this day

Day 278 of the year, 87 days left in 2026. Today World Space Week (October 4–10); Armed Forces Day (Indonesia); Christian feast day: Anna Schäffer; Christian feast day: Charitina of Amisus. Star sign Libra, birthstone Opal.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAYS

- 1985 — Nicola Roberts, English singer-songwriter
- 1943 — Steve Miller, American singer-songwriter and guitarist
- 1975 — Monica Rial, American voice actress, director, and screenwriter
- 1959 — Kelly Joe Phelps, American singer-songwriter and guitarist (died 2022)
- 1957 — Lee Thompson, English singer-songwriter and saxophonist
- 1942 — Richard Street, American singer-songwriter (died 2013)
- 1951 — Karen Allen, American actress
- 1946 — David Watson, English footballer

THE DAY TODAY

- 1988 — A Chilean opposition coalition defeats Augusto Pinochet in his re-election attempt.
- 1947 — President Truman makes the first televised Oval Office address.
- 1970 — The Public Broadcasting Service (PBS) is founded in the United States.[citation needed]

TODAY IN MUSIC

- 1988 — A Chilean opposition coalition defeats Augusto Pinochet in his re-election attempt.
- 1970 — The Public Broadcasting Service (PBS) is founded in the United States.[citation needed]

TODAY IN HISTORY

- 1943 — World War II: Pacific Theater: Ninety-eight American POWs are executed by Japanese forces on Wake Island.
- 1938 — Holocaust: In Nazi Germany, Jews' passports are invalidated.
- 1966 — A reactor at the Enrico Fermi Nuclear Generating Station near Detroit suffers a partial meltdown.

A peek at tomorrow

Day 279 of the year, 86 days left in 2026. Today Christian feast day: Bruno of Cologne; Christian feast day: Faith; Christian feast day: Blessed Isidore De Loor; Christian feast day: Blessed Juan de Palafox y Mendoza. Star sign Libra, birthstone Opal.

TOMORROW'S BIRTHDAYS

- 2000 — Addison Rae, American social media personality, dancer, and singer
- 1948 — Glenn Branca, American guitarist and composer (died 2018)
- 1931 — Eileen Derbyshire, English actress
- 1928 — Barbara Werle, American actress and singer (died 2013)
- 1978 — Ricky Hatton, English boxer and promoter (died 2025)
- 1974 — Jeremy Sisto, American actor, producer, and screenwriter
- 1977 — Wes Ramsey, American actor
- 1951 — Clive Rees, Singaporean-Welsh rugby player and educator

THE DAY TOMORROW

- 1973 — Egypt and Syria launch coordinated attacks against Israel, beginning the Yom Kippur War.
- 1981 — NLM CityHopper Flight 431 crashes in Moerdijk after taking off from Rotterdam The Hague Airport in the Netherlands, killing all 17 people on board.
- 1977 — The first prototype of the Mikoyan MiG-29, designated 9-01, makes its maiden flight.

TOMORROW IN MUSIC

- 1898 — Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, the largest American music fraternity, is founded at the New England Conservatory of Music.
- 1973 — Egypt and Syria launch coordinated attacks against Israel, beginning the Yom Kippur War.

Coming to cinemas

OCTOBER 2026 • PREVIEW

FRI 16 Untitled Christopher McQuarrie thriller

FRI 23 Frankenstein (del Toro)

11 — FORWARD PLANNING • SPORT

On the sporting calendar