04 — NEWSBRIEF

Quick hits

1 Slow cookers are flying off the shelves again as energy-conscious shoppers rediscover them.
They use a fraction of the power of an oven over a day. The downside: the smell of dinner from 9am tests everyone's patience.

2 More people are switching their morning scroll for a morning walk, apps suggest.
Step-counters report a small but steady rise in early-morning activity. The motivation for most? A dog that refuses to wait.

3 A poll finds the nation can't agree on the correct way to make a cup of tea.
Milk first or last remains a genuine source of household tension. The one thing we agree on: someone else should make it.

4 Pub quizzes are reporting record team sign-ups, with niche rounds drawing the crowds.
Music and picture rounds are the great levellers. The cleverest team name still wins more goodwill than the actual answers.

5 One in three of us has had a 'sleep divorce' — sleeping in a separate bed from our partner.
Reasons: snoring (45%), different schedules (30%), restless legs, and one bizarre 12% who say their partner 'talks to the cat in their sleep'.

6 British baby names are getting shorter again — three- and four-letter names are dominating the registrar.
Top picks this year: Noa, Ezra, Ada and Bo. Long, multi-syllable Victorian names like Theodora are sliding back down the chart.

7 Brits spend an average of 38 minutes a day deciding what to watch — and 12 of those are spent scrolling Netflix.
'Watch-paralysis' has its own subreddit. Streamers are quietly experimenting with 'shuffle' buttons that just play something.

05 — TALKBACK

For the phone lines

OUR SURVEY SAID

Q 7 in 10 of us have lied about THIS to get off the phone faster.

ANSWER: 'OH, YOU'RE BREAKING UP, I'M GOING INTO A TUNNEL.'

Q The most common thing we Google late at night is apparently THIS.

ANSWER: WHETHER IT'S NORMAL THAT OUR KNEE JUST DID THAT.

TALK TOPIC

- If you won the lottery tonight, what's the FIRST thing you'd buy tomorrow?
  Talk-back: not the dream house. Not the holiday. The first daft thing you'd buy because you finally could.
- What's the worst job you've ever had — and how long did you last?
  Talk-back: the war stories are usually the funniest. Bonus marks for under a fortnight.

TRUE STORY OR JACKANORY — LISTENERS GUESS

FACT Nature. Some trees can 'talk' to each other through underground fungal networks, sharing nutrients and even warning signals — sometimes nicknamed the 'wood wide web'.

FICTION Made up, but believable. A National Trust garden has had to put up signs asking visitors to stop apologising to the bees, after staff noticed people muttering 'sorry' every time one flew past.
